ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a great pleasure for us to acknowledge the assistance and support of a large number of individuals who have been responsible for the successful completion of this project work.

First, we take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude to the School of Computer Science and Engineering, RV University, for providing us with a great opportunity to pursue our Bachelor's Degree in this institution.

In particular we would like to thank Dr. Sanjay R. Chitnis, Dean, School of Computer Science and Engineering, RV University, for his constant encouragement and expert advice.

It is a matter of immense pleasure to express our sincere thanks to Dr.Mydhili Nair, Head of the department, Computer Science & Engineering University, for providing right academic guidance that made our task possible.

We would like to thank our guide Santhosh S. Head of the Department Dept. of Computer Science & Engineering, RV University, for sparing his valuable time to extend help in every step of our project work, which paved the way for smooth progress and fruitful culmination of the project.

We are also grateful to our family and friends who provided us with every requirement throughout the course.

We would like to thank one and all who directly or indirectly helped us in completing the Project work successfully.

1. INTRODUCTION

This chapter should contain brief background information about the project, the methodology implemented for problem-solving. It rarely contains drawings and graphical illustrations.

2. Related work

It evaluates the current work with the previous one. It depicts the current implementations that overcome the previous problems and limitations of the project, and draws the attention and focus on the foreknowledge work that would be conducted based on the ongoing work at present. It must be clear and simple to understand.

3. METHODOLOGY

Essentially, a methodology is a collection of methods, practices, processes, techniques, procedures, and rules

Explain your methodological approach.

Describe your methods of data collection and/or selection.

Describe your methods of analysis.

Evaluate and justify your methodological choices.

4. IMPLEMENTATION

Write the experimental procedure like a step-by-step recipe for your science experiment. A good procedure is so detailed and complete that it lets someone else duplicate your experiment exactly!

5. RESULT AND DISCUSSION

This section should be written in the present tense. The Discussion section needs to follow from your results and relate back to your literature review.

Interpret and explain your results.

Answer your research question.

Justify your approach.

Critically evaluate your study.

6. CONCLUSION

The conclusion and recommendations part summarizes the whole report by highlighting all the chapters and their significance and the importance of the project and the achievements.

7. FUTURE SCOPE

Scope for future development if any
